A Drunken Carouse That May End in One Man's Death.

Hamilton, O., April 17 .- On Sunday afternoon a party of four wood-choppers, named Henry Farley, William Harrison. and two brothers named Smith, who all claim Clover Bottom, Jackson county, Ky. as their home, were at the village of Symmes' Corner, loitering and drinking. About I o'clock, Smith and Farley began a quarrel, and the latter drew a revolver. pointing it at one of the Smiths, and threatening to shoot. Harrison, secing the trouble, went out and endeavored to quiet them. As he advanced to Farley the latter told him to come no further or he would fire, but Harrison still advanced, and told him not to shoot. Farley waved his pistol about with drunken indecision, but suddenly straightened his arm and fired directly at Harrison. The ball entered the body about two inches anterior to the point of the right hip. ranging downward and across the bowels. Farley, seeing the mischief he had done. started to run across a plowed field, falling at almost every step, the pistol still in his hand, and its muzzle filling with the soft loam. He was soon overtaken by a portion of the crowd and stood at bay, flourishing his weapon and snapping it to intimidate his pursuers, but in an unguarded moment the weapon was wrenched from him, and he then drew a knife, striking viciously at several. One little freeklefaced fellow particularly excited his ire, and he swore he would knife him, advancing .. he spoke, but freckle face, with a pistol in hand, warned him not to come within cutting distance. Just at this moment a stunning blow reached his car and resistance was ended.

The wounded man was hastly carried to the office of Dr. Armstrong, near by, where he came near dying from collapse, his pulse going below 30. He was revived and prob-ing began, but the ball could not be found. Harrison was then moved to the residence of Freeman G. Cary, and further search for the ball was made, but without results. He is dangerously injured, and may not sur-

Farley was taken to the jail in this city, but before arriving there attempted an escape. Jumping from the wagon, he ran swiftly down the road, followed by Henry Kehm, who soon reached his ear with a heavy blow, at once knocking him down and ending the race. Harrison is about twenty-five years of age and unmarried. Farley was visiting the Smith boys at their shanty, and had obtained work temporarily through Harrison's aid.

WOULD TAKE THE CHANCES.

A St. Louis Saloon Reeper Who Knew the Man He Had to Handle.

Sr. Lovis, April 17 .- An inquest on the body of Pete Connelly was held to-day at the Coroner's office. The principal witnesses to the affray in which Connelly was fatully wounded could not be found, and the officers, who arrived on the scene shortly after the altereation, were examined. Callahan McCarthy, the defendant, was present with his attorney, Mr. Geo, Anderson. Officer Shoemaker testified that he arrived at Callahan McCarthy's saloon last Monday night, shortly after the difficulty. He saw McCarthy at the station-house and heard him make a statement of the matter before Sergeants Joyce and Jenks and Jack Laher and Other Spoeneman. He said that Connelly came in and asked two men who were sitting at the table to wark up and have a drink. Three glasses of beer were served, and McCarthy stood back of the bar. Connelly asked, "What are you looking at?" and McCarthy replied, "I'm waiting for the pay for those drinks." Connelly refased to pay and McCarthy struck him, and thinking the deceased was going to draw a weapon, the prisoner dealt him a hard blow, which felled him, and then a third to keep him from getting up and cutting him. Connelly had frequently caused disturbances in the saloon, and on one oc-casion went behind the bar and, taking a revolver, attempted to shoot the proprietor. McCarthy stated that if ever he got into trouble with Connelly he would take no chances with him. Questions concerning Connelly's character asked by the jurors were excluded by the Coroner.

Lynched.

OZARK, ARK, April 17 .- A negro boy, seventeen years of age, living south of El Dorado, outraged the little daughter of Mrs. John H. Askew, a few days ago. He was arrested, identified by the girl, who was only seven years old, and confessed his guilt. He was taken from the Sheriff's posse by the outraged citizens and lynched.

A Desperate Criminal.

BURNETT, TEX, April 17 .- Robertson, the patent right agent, who on Tuesday last outraged a young white lady, but who escaped from the officers, has been overtaken and, in a fight with the posse, mortally wounded Deputy Sheriff Garrett. Robertson declared that he will never be taken alive, and will die fighting.

An Assailant Killed.

HAVANA, Ill., April 17 .- Late last night John Stout, while escorting a young lady home from a church lecture, was waylaid and beaten by Frank Coppel, his rival. Stout then drew a knife and fatally stabbed Frank. Both are highly connected.

Bishop Twigg Dying.

PITTSBURG, PA., April 17 .- Right Rev. John Twigg, Bishop of the Pittsburg die tes of the Roman Catholic Church, was stricken with paralysis Saturday. He is the the three sections and is not expected to live ever night.

WANTED-MORE MONEY.

The Carpenters and Painters of New York Go on a Strike,

NEW YORK, April 17 .- The carpenters and painters held a mass-meeting on Saturday night, and adopted resolutions pledging themselves not to go to work for less than $3.50 per day. The carpenters have been receiving from $2.75 to $3.25 per day, and, in addition to the increased rate, demanded a reduction of time on Saturdays to eight hours. About onehalf of the wages averaged $3. The rain yesterday prevented house painting by either strikers or nonpainting by either strikers or non-strikers, but committees were appoint-ed to lay the demands of the strikers before the bosses. The carpenters began a general strike yesterday. In a majority of the shops the bosses agreed to pay the $3.25 a day demanded, with ut allowing the men to leave work. The men had hardly packed up their tools in twelve other shops when they were told to resume work at their own terms. The German House Painters' Union held a meeting at Beethoven Hall last night. The committee on strikes reported that thirty-two of the posses have agreed to pay $5,50 per day, A number of others hold out, and eight men out of 460 in the Union are still on strike. These men will receive 58 a week from the treasury of the Union while out of employment.

PROHIBITION IN IOWA.

The Court Will Hold the Legislature Responsible for the Present Condition of Affairs.

DES MOINES, IA., April 17 .- The judges of the Supreme Court have been here during the week, consulting the State law library, on authorities, and the indications are that a decision on the amendment case will be given at Dubaque, when the court convenes Tuesday. The probabilities are that the court will reaffirm its former decision, and give its reasons quite extensively in answer to the argument of counsel for the amendment as to the jurisdiction of the Court. The only plausible ground on which the Court can do this seems to be that the question having been raised as to the validity of the amendment, there must be power vested somewhere to decide, and reasonably; and, according to the principles of our Government, it is with the Supreme Court, That it will not do for that Court to seek to evade responsibility by refusing to act by dismissing the case. The Court will thus lature wholly responsible for the present condition of affairs.
